Participants are to participate in all activities, unless noted on the signed Camp/Registration and Health Form and/or Outside Services Form.

1. Sign In/Sign Out: when SROSRC deems it necessary and appropriate: the participant must be signed in and out by an authorized parent or guardian if under 18 years old (listed on application) when the program starts and ends. Photo identification is required to show to staff.

- Parents must find the child's group and sign them in if they arrive late or if signing out early

2. Things to Bring:

- Water or sports drink are recommended to bring for all of our activities or events unless specifically specified by SROSRC that we will be providing them.

- Bring comfortable and appropriate clothing for the appropriate activities. Closed toe shoes are required for certain activities and strongly recommended for almost all our activities and events. Flip flops or sandals are NOT allowed to be worn for certain activities and participants will be asked to change or denied participation if not appropriately dressed.

3. Things Not to Bring: SROSRC is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or broken items

- Listen to and follow direction of SROSRC staff/supervisors, service providers, and volunteers

- Keep yourself and others safe

- Keep your hands and feet to yourself

- Respect the property of other participants, all equipment, and all facilities

- Participate in all activities in a positive manner

5. Behavior & Disciplinary Action Policy: A participant's participation in any program, event, or camp of SROSRC is dependent upon their behavior. General discipline techniques involve positive reinforcement for acceptable behavior. Parents will be notified in writing and by phone if the participant continues to display undesired behavior. Our goal is for all participants to have a safe and positive experience at any and all of SROSRC programs, events, and camps, and we will strive to work with the participant and if necessary the parent prior to withdrawing the participant from any or all programs, events, or camps. SROSRC reserves the right to withdraw any participant if the behavior is severely disruptive, or creates physical harm to self and/or others. This includes but is not limited to:

- Aggressive physical contact or inappropriate language

- Engaging in fighting or bullying

- Stealing or defacing other participant's personal belongings or facilities being used

- Disrespect for staff, rude and discourteous behavior toward others

- Refusing to follow rules and guidelines, insubordination

- Does not stay with counselor, running away from staff

- Repeatedly displaying an inability to follow established rules and guidelines

- Brings a weapon, alcohol, or controlled substance

- Harm to self and others, including physical harm

Failure to comply with the rules and expectations may lead to disciplinary action, suspension, and/or termination from the event, program, or camp. A refund will not be provided for a child removed for these reasons.

Disciplinary Action Policy

1st occurrence – Redirect and verbal warning is given with a talk between the counselor/staff and the participant. Parent is made aware when necessary and will sign Behavior/Incident Report at pick up

2nd occurrence - Reflection time from activities will be given; in the event the behavior reoccurs, parent will sign Behavior/Incident Report at pick up

3rd occurrence - In the event the behavior is still not corrected, is continuous, and unable to be resolved, this will result in immediate withdrawal from programs, events, or camps, without a refund. Phone call will be made home to the parent by appropriate staff. Parent must arrange immediate transportation for the participant.
